

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY, 2011

1. Objectives of Policy:

RITES Ltd., is committed to maintain highest ethical, moral and legal standards in conduct of its business in a transparent manner. The policy aims to provide an opportunity to its employees to “Blow a Whistle” (make a protected disclosure) against any activity which is unethical or contrary to established practices of the Company with immunity from victimization, harassment or reprisals.

2. APPLICATION:

The Policy shall be applicable to employee(s) of RITES Ltd., making a disclosure who is hereinafter referred to as a “whistle blower”.

3. Definitions:

Unless the context otherwise requires:

- (i) “Board” means Board of Directors of the Company;
- (ii) “Complaint” means the complaint or concern raised by an employee under this Policy;
- (iii) “Company” means RITES Ltd.;
- (iv) “Disciplinary action” means any action under RITES Ltd. (Conduct, Discipline & Appeal) Rules, 1980 or such action as considered appropriate in respect of an employee not covered under RITES D&AR Rules;
- (v) “Employee” means an employee of the RITES Ltd.;
- (vi) “Managing Director” means Managing Director of the Company,
Note: The term Managing Director shall include an officer duly appointed to act as Managing Director in the absence of Managing Director;
- (vii) “Protected Disclosure” means a disclosure or complaint made or concern raised under this policy;
- (viii) “Whistle Blower” means the employee who has made the protected disclosure under this Policy;

4. Protection:

- (i) The identity of the whistle blower shall be kept confidential unless he himself has made the details of the disclosure either public or disclosed his identity to any other office or authority.
- (ii) Any other employee assisting in the said investigation or furnishing evidence shall also be protected to the same extent as whistle blower.
- (iii) No unfair treatment shall be meted out to a whistle blower by virtue of his/her having report a protected disclosure under this Policy. Complete protection will be given to the whistle blower against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer demotion, refusal of promotion, discrimination, any type of harassment, biased behavior or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the whistle blower's right to continue to perform his duties/functions including making further protected disclosure.

5. Procedure:

- (i) Any employee can make a disclosure or complaint about unethical, actual or suspected fraud or violation of Company's general guidelines on conduct or ethics policy of the Company.
- (ii) Though the whistle blower is not expected or required to provide irrefutable proof of veracity of the allegation(s), he shall be expected to provide as much information as is available with him to demonstrate that there are good and sufficient reasons/grounds for the complaint or concern.
- (iii) The disclosure should be carefully worded so as not to give any details or clue as to his/her identity. However, the details of the disclosure should be specific and verifiable.
- (iv) The disclosure shall be made in sealed cover and addressed as under:-

Protected disclosure under Whistle Blower Policy to be opened by Addressee only.

Shri Rajeev Mehrotra
The Chairman and Managing Director
RITES Ltd.,
RITES Bhawan,
Plot No. 1, Sector-29,
Gurgaon (Harayana) - 122001

Protected disclosure in exceptional circumstances be made to the Chairman Audit Committee at the following Address.

Shri Anil Kumar Goel
Chairman, Audit Committee
Shanteesh, B-38
Ashok Niketan, (Near Anand Vihar)
New Delhi – 92

- (v) The protected disclosure shall be received in Receipt & Dispatch Section at ROC-I at Gurgaon. It will be responsibility of the In-charge of the R&I Section to maintain a separate register for the same and to deliver all such protected disclosures immediately thereafter to the Managing Director against proper receipt in the Register.

- (vi) The whistle blower should give his/her name, address etc. either at the top or at the bottom of the disclosure or on an attached sheet. Each page of the public disclosure should be initialed at the bottom.
- (vii) To protect the identity of the whistle blower no receipt will be issued. The complaints /whistle blowers in his own interest are advised not to enter into any further correspondence in this regard. It will be ensured that necessary action is taken on all complaints received under this Policy. If any further clarification is required, contact will be made with the whistle blower.

6. Investigation:

All disclosures so received shall be looked into by the Managing Director. The Managing Director may entrust investigation to any person, specialist within the Company or the Chief Vigilance Officer, ensuring that the identity of the whistle blower and the subject matter shall not be disclosed. A written report of the findings shall normally be made within one month.

7. Result of Investigations:

On the basis of the enquiries/investigations made into the disclosure by the Managing Director necessary and appropriate action shall be initiated by the Managing Director against responsible officials. Preventive measures to prevent re-occurrence of the subject matter or allied matters of the disclosure and any other action as considered necessary shall also be taken by the Managing Director/Competent Authority.

8. Reporting to the Board:

An yearly report of the disclosures received under this Policy shall be submitted to the Board of Director of the Company (RITES Ltd.)

9. Restrictions:

- (i) Anonymous or pseudonymous complaints shall not be investigated under this policy;
- (ii) The complaint should not be frivolous or based on conjectures or hearsay;
- (iii) Complaints made with malafide intentions will not be entertained;
- (iv) The complaint should not relate to personal service grievances;
- (v) Complaints made using derogatory or defamatory language against officers, employees or stake holders of the Company;

Note: - Any violation of the above shall invite D&AR action or such action as considered appropriate in respect of an employee not governed by D&AR Rules.

10. Penalty for disclosure of identities:

Any person found responsible for disclosure of information contained in the protected disclosure or the identity of the whistle blower shall be liable to disciplinary proceedings in accordance with the provisions of the RITES Ltd. (Conduct, Discipline & Appeal) Rules, 1980 or such action as considered appropriate in respect of an employee not governed by D&AR Rules.